Base de Plein Air des Cèdres is managed by the Municipality of Les Cèdres. The site, open year round, bordered by a forest of 50-year-old pines, is located right in Vaudreuil-Soulanges, 40 km west of Montreal. To conserve this magical spot, it is dedicated to respecting nature and the environment through outdoor activities. It is open to the general public, families and groups from schools, associations and corporations.
